Summary of reasons for decision:

The Blu-ray disc contains a "Theatrical Version" and "Extended Cut" of a film originally examined by the Office of Film and Literature Classification (OFLC No. 1100122, registered 28 February 2011). The film was classified "Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 16 years" and assigned the descriptive note "Contains drug use, sex scenes and offensive language".

The theatrical version of the feature is identical to the original film. The extended version is six minutes longer in duration than the theatrical version. The difference in running time between the two versions is attributed to extended and deleted scenes in the "Extended Cut". These additional aspects do not alter the overall plot of the original feature. The extra material contained in the "Extended Cut", deleted scene, and gag reel provide additional scenes of humour. They do not require the Blu-ray disc to be given a different classification or descriptive note to that originally assigned to the 35mm film.
